Biography

Nasrin Abu Baker, born in 1977 in Zalafa village near Nazareth, Palestine, studied B.Ed. in Art & Education at Hamidrasha Faculty of Art, Beit Berl College from 2003 to 2008. She completed her masterclass in Media Art at the Academy of Fine Arts Leipzig from 2018 to 2021. Now based in Jerusalem, Nasrin is a multidisciplinary artist whose work delves into themes of identity, memory, and socio-political narratives. Using a variety of mediums, she engages with communities and cultural institutions worldwide to create thought-provoking art that challenges perceptions and fosters dialogue.
